The Prophet Joel – which means “Yawheh is God”

Joel identifies himself as the son of Pethuel, a name mentioned nowhere else in the Old Testament (Joel 1: 1).

While some scholars believe he ministered to the returning exiles, the book's content suggests he may have prophesied around 835 BC, during the reign of King Joash, though this is still debated.

The prophet Joel was a biblical figure who delivered a message of repentance and judgment to the kingdom of Judah, using a devastating locust plague as a symbol of God's impending wrath. He urged the people to return to God with all their hearts, promising that if they did, God would show mercy and pour out his Spirit on all people. Joel is known as the author of the Book of Joel and is considered one of the Minor Prophets in the Old Testament.

- Message of repentance: The central theme of Joel's prophecy is the call to repentance in the face of a catastrophic "Day of the Lord". He describes a devastating locust plague as a foretaste of judgment for the people's sin, urging them to repent through fasting, weeping and mourning.
- Promise of God's mercy: Joel promises that God is "gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in lovingkindness". If the people repent, God will relent and restore their land.
- The outpouring of the Spirit: The book includes a significant prophecy about the future outpouring of God's Spirit on all people (Joel 2: 28 - 29), a passage quoted in the New Testament book of Acts (Acts 2: 17 - 18).
- Judgment and salvation: Ultimately, Joel's message is one of both judgment for evil and salvation for those who turn to God. He teaches that all nations will be held accountable before the Lord.

VERSE FOR THIS WEEK

Joel 2: 32, "And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, even among the survivors whom the Lord calls."

The “U” in JesUs.

Before U were thought of, or time had begun,
God had stuck U in the name of His Son.

And each time U pray, you'll see it's true.
You can't spell out JesUs and not include U.

You're a pretty big part of His wonderful name.
For U, he was born; that's why He came.

And His great love for U is the reason that he died.
It even takes U to spell crUcified.

Isn't it thrilling and splendidly grand?
He rose from the dead with U in His plan.

The stones split away, the gold trUmpet blew.
The word ressUrection is also spelled with a U.

When Jesus left the earth at His upward ascension,
He felt there was one thing He just had to mention.

"Go into the world and tell them it's true,
That I love them all - Just like I love U.

So many great people are spelled with a U.
Don't they have the right to know JesUs too?

It all depends now on what U will do.
He'd like them to know, but it all starts with U.
