LADIES' BIBLE STUDY

All the ladies are invited to join in and attend the Bible Study classes, every Wednesday morning at 10am. The book of Job is being studied.

PRAYER REQUESTS

There are many in our congregation who are in need of constant prayers. We think especially of Thoko and her family during this time of her mother's illness, as well as Anle, who is now recuperating at home.

SURPRISING FACTS ABOUT UNIQUE CHARACTERS FROM THE BIBLE:

Ehud was a left-handed judge from the tribe of Benjamin, which famously had a reputation for left-handed warriors. He used his left-handedness to outsmart an enemy king in a way that reads like an action movie plot. (Judges 3)

Balaam was a prophet who famously got into a verbal argument with his own pack animal. After beating his transportation for stopping to avoid an invisible angel, God temporarily allowed the animal to speak and question him. (Numbers 22)

King Josiah took the throne when he was only eight years old and grew up to become one of the most reform-minded and praised rulers in Judah's history. (2 Kings 22)

An unnamed giant mentioned in 2 Samuel 21: 20 had a distinct genetic trait: he possessed six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, totaling 24 digits.

Enoch and Elijah share a rare distinction in biblical accounts: they are the two individuals recorded as never experiencing physical death, as both were taken up directly by God.

Ebed-Melech was an Ethiopian official in the royal palace who bravely rescued the prophet Jeremiah from a muddy cistern where he had been left to starve (Jeremiah 38).

Shamgar was a biblical judge who single-handedly defeated 600 Philistines using only an oxgoad (a sharp wooden pole used to steer livestock (Judges 3: 31).

Shiphrah and Puah were two Hebrew midwives who carried out one of the earliest recorded acts of civil disobedience by defying Pharaoh's direct orders to kill newborn Hebrew boys (Exodus 1).

Rhoda was a young servant girl who was so overjoyed to hear the miraculously escaped Apostle Peter at the door that she forgot to open it, running back inside to tell everyone, while Peter was left knocking outside (Acts 12).
