BENEVOLENCE

Just a gentle reminder to please start bringing your contributions for the benevolence programmes, as we will start packing this week.

A HEART OF BENEVOLENCE

A little food, a helping hand, can bring new hope across the land.

Each meal we share, each gift we give, helps those in need to laugh and live.

Together we gather, together we care, showing God's love through the food we share.

No act too small, no heart too weak, for kindness speaks when words cannot speak.

Through our benevolence, love finds a way, bringing hope and blessings every day.

All ladies are welcome to attend the classes. Gill du Preez will teach you how to become a teacher.

Gill did her teacher's training under Donna Horne at SABS and has since taught ladies in congregations in South Africa (Natal, Gauteng, Eastern Cape), USA and Venda.

The Necessity of Prayer

When life is dark and burdens weigh,
And we can't see a clearer way,
We kneel before our Lord above,
And find His strength, His peace, His love.

For prayer is more than words we say,
It brings our hearts to God each day.
It gives us courage, hope, and light,
And helps us walk with Him aright.

When joy is ours, we pray with praise;
When trials come, we seek His ways.
In every moment, come what may,
We need our God — and need to pray.

When we are weak and strength is gone,
His faithful hand will lead us on.
He hears each whisper, knows each tear,
And draws us close when He is near.

So let us never walk alone,
But bring our cares before His throne.
For through our prayers, our faith grows strong,
And in God's presence, we belong.
