AM I A BLESSING? By Jay Launius

During our daily lives, we encounter many different people. Some are happy and others sad, some may be successful while others are failures. The individuals we meet will have various characters. Some will be mean, bitter, and hateful, while others are sweet, kind and helpful. On the other hand, when others meet us, what type of person do they encounter? Will we be the person that they will be glad to have met, or someone to be avoided?

By the Scriptures, God has given us His instruction, plan and blueprint, so that we will be a blessing to each and every person we meet throughout the day. Galatians 6: 10, "As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people."

A great summation of the Christian character is found in Romans 12: 2, where we are told not to be conformed by the world around us, but transform our thinking so we make the right decisions in life, thus pleasing God.

Here are just a few ways we can be a blessing to others:

- Be a blessing by being genuine (Romans 12: 9). No one likes a fake. We are to have the same genuine love and care for others as Christ had for us. After all, He made the ultimate sacrifice for us. (John 15: 13; Ephesians 5: 2).
- Be a blessing by serving others (Romans 12: 11). We are to serve the Lord with a fervent and enthusiastic spirit. When we serve God in this way, others are blessed with our acts of kindness and benevolence.
- Be a blessing to those who don't like you (Romans 12: 14). There will be people who hate, ridicule, cheat, lie, steal and harm us or our family. But instead of returning evil for evil, we bless and don't curse, having the best intentions toward every person (Romans 12: 17).
- Be a blessing to those who like you (Romans 12: 15). Here we are to rejoice with those who rejoice, cry with those who are crying and suffer with those who suffer. (1 Cor. 12: 26). We love those who love us, celebrating their victories and providing comfort during their losses.

LADIES' BIBLE STUDY

SCRIPTURES ON BLESSING:

Proverbs 11: 25, "A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed."

1 Peter 3: 9, "Do not repay evil with evil, or insult with insult. On the contrary, repay with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing."

ECBC LECTURE ROOM

We are looking for bookcase donations for the ECBC classroom.

If you have any unused bookcases or bookshelves, please speak to Chris or Braam.

AM I A BLESSING?

Lord, sometimes I wonder,
“Am I a blessing today?”
Do my words bring hope and comfort,
Or do they turn hearts away?

Am I a light in someone’s darkness,
A hand when someone falls?
Do I show Your love and kindness
In the little things You call?

I may not change the world, Lord,
Or do great things in Your name,
But if I love as Jesus taught me,
My life will not be the same.

So help me be a blessing,
Wherever I may be.
Let others see Your love, Lord,
Shining through my life for Thee.
