Build Me a Son – A Father's Prayer

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be; a son who will know Thee and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge. Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be clean, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will learn to laugh yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humour, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.

Proverbs 20: 7: "The righteous lead blameless lives; blessed are their children after them."

Psalms 103: 13: "As a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord has compassion on those who fear Him."

FATHER

ESPECIALLY FOR OUR DADS

Who was the smartest man in the Bible? Abraham. He knew a Lot.

What's the difference between a man's wallet before and after kids? There are pictures where the money used to be.

How many dads does it take to get you to clean your room? One, but it takes 18 years!

Silence is golden. Unless you have kids, then silence is suspicious.

OUR PETRO LE ROUX – safe and at peace in our Father's House.

John 14: 2: "In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you."

I will always remember Petro as a strong, vibrant sister in Christ. She was always willing to help and each task she took on she did with diligence. She has left a big vacant spot in the lives that she came in contact with. Farewell Petro, rest safely in the arms of Jesus. Thelma Lothian

Petro. A faithful servant for the Lord. A shining light to our congregation. A worker of note. She was a kind and compassionate sister. A faithful disciple of Jesus. We are all going to miss her. But hallelujah, she is resting with the Lord. Pam Share

She was a quiet bloom who unfurled into radiant grace over the years. Once a shy and gentle soul, she blossomed into a woman of profound faith—confidently reading Scripture in English and offering lessons rich with wisdom, insight, and quiet power that touched every heart in the room. With effortless humility, she embraced the monthly benevolence ministry, tending to needs with open hands and a servant's heart, while quietly taking charge of the garden, coaxing beauty from the earth just as she nurtured beauty in those around her. Whether guiding the kitchen or overseeing every gathering and event, she moved with a serene and gentle demeanor that brought peace, order, and warmth to all. At 67, this precious lady left behind a legacy not of noise or fanfare, but of steadfast love, faithful service, and the soft, enduring light of a life lived fully for others. This... our beloved Petro. Gill Brandstetter

"Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue."
