TAKE HEED – Jay Launius

Today, it is nearly impossible to purchase any consumer good that does not display a warning on the label. The first warning labels appeared in the late 1920's on hazardous household substances such as lye and acids. Now, thousands upon thousands of products from chemical products, industrial machinery to medications and children's toys display warnings to consumers.

When it comes to warnings, the Bible is not short in providing spiritual cautions for the follower of Christ. The term "take heed" appears some twenty-one times in the New King James translation of the New Testament. Other versions use the phrases "watch out", "be careful" and "pay close attention", all preceding cautionary instructions for the Christian. Why all the warnings? A brief review of just some of the admonitions found in the Scriptures will help us realize the importance of paying close attention to ourselves and our spiritual well-being.

- Watch that the light in you doesn't turn into darkness - Luke 11: 35.
- Beware of materialism, life consist of more than your stuff - Luke 12: 15.
- Pay attention to yourself and forgive those who hurt you - Luke 17: 3.
- Don't get weighed down by wasteful living and the cares of life - Luke 21: 34.
- Be careful that you build on the foundation of Christ - 1 Cor. 3: 10.
- Pay close attention to your standing lest you may fall - 1 Cor.10: 12.

Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming (Matthew 25: 13).

With the start of a new month and the arrival of winter days, let us remind ourselves that –

IS ALWAYS IN SEASON.

DID YOU KNOW?

When Johannes Gutenberg invented the movable-type printing press in the 15th century, the very first book he printed was the Bible.

And...

The original New Testament manuscripts did not have chapter or verse divisions. They were added hundreds of years later to help readers navigate and study the text.

CHILD - SHOP WITH CARE.

Everything a human needed was in that grocery store,
And what you could not carry, you could come back for more.
First, I got some Patience. Love was in that same row.
Further down was Understanding, you need that everywhere you go.
I got a box or two of Wisdom and Faith a bag or two,
And Charity of course I would need some of that too.
I couldn't miss the Holy Spirit; it was all over the place.
And then some Strength and Courage to help me run this race.
My basket was getting full, but I remembered I needed Grace.
And then I chose Salvation, for Salvation was for free.
I tried to get enough of that to do for you and me.
Then I started to the counter to pay my grocery bill,
For I thought I had everything to do the Master's Will.
As I went up the aisle, I saw Prayer and put that in,
For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run into Sin.
Peace and Joy were plentiful, the last things on the shelf.
Song and Praise were hanging near, so I just helped myself.
Then I said to the angel, 'Now how much do I owe?'
The angel smiled and said, 'Just take them all everywhere you go.'
Again, I asked, 'Really now, how much do I owe?'
'My child', the angel said, 'God paid your bill a long, long time ago.'
